New Law Requires Annual Exemption Reports

*Budget 4
2009*

Pick up any newspaper in New York State and it will be clear that high property taxes are among the most pressing concerns facing New York State right now. One significant, though often unrecognized, reason that property taxes are so burdensome is the amount of property that is wholly or partially exempt from taxation. While exemptions serve a valid public purpose, they also erode the tax base and shift the tax burden to other property owners. The extent of this impact is largely hidden from view, because no systematic reporting is done at the local level.

To improve transparency and accountability, ORPS presented the Legislature with an agency program bill this year to ensure that the public has access to information about the extent and impact of property tax exemptions in their communities. The bill was introduced by Chair of the Senate Local Government Committee, Senator Elizabeth Little, and the Chair of the Assembly Committee on Real Property Taxation, Assemblywoman Sandra Galef. After passing both houses, Senate Bill 7538/Assembly Bill 10613 was signed into law by Governor David A. Paterson on July 7 as Chapter 258.

The new law requires counties, cities, towns, villages and school districts to attach to their tentative or preliminary budgets an exemption report. The report will show how much of the total assessed value on the final assessment roll (or rolls) used in that budgetary process are exempt from taxation.

The report will list:

- Every type of exemption granted by the taxing authority, and the cumulative impact of each type of exemption (in either dollar amount of assessed value or as a percentage of the total assessed value on the roll);
- The cumulative amount expected to be received from recipients of each type of exemption as payments in lieu of taxes or other payments for municipal services; and
- The cumulative impact of all exemptions granted.

Notice of the report is required to be included in any notice of the preparation of the budget otherwise required by law. Also, the report is required to be posted on any bulletin board maintained by the budgeting authority for public notices and on any website maintained by the budgeting authority. In addition to being attached to the tentative/preliminary budget, the report also will be part of the final budget.

Distribution of Exemptions by Type of Ownership, 2006 Assessment Rolls

Chapter 258 takes effect 90 days after being signed. Therefore, the first budgets to be impacted by the new law will be those prepared by most counties and towns in the autumn of 2008.

For those municipalities that use RPS Version 4 software for assessment administration, ORPS is currently developing a standardized report to meet the bulk of the exemption reporting requirements. More information will be made available in upcoming months.
